

Human Services

What is "Human Services"? These are programs and organizations that are meant to support individuals in their daily life. If you feel like you want to "help where you are needed most" one of these opportunities may be a fit for you.

AMETHYST HOUSE

PO Box 11 47402-0011
336-3570 ext. 14
www.amethysthouse.org

Volunteer Contact: Georgia Burgueno Minimum Age: 16
Email: amethyst@bloomington.in.us

Provides transitional housing for men and women, and women with dependent children, who are in recovery from addictions.

* Opportunities for all ages that range from doing maintenance work, cleaning and landscaping to teaching computer classes and doing office work.

CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER

808 N. College Ave. 47404
334-0104
www.cpcbloomington.org

Volunteer Contact: Tessa Ashton Minimum Age: All Ages
Email: tessa@cpcbloomington.org

A faith-based social service agency providing comprehensive services to meet the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of people affected by crisis pregnancies. Also operates Hannah House Maternity Home (see separate listing).

* Help is needed with sorting and disbursing donations, cleaning, errands, administrative tasks and child care. All ages are welcome.

SALVATION ARMY

111 N. Rogers St., PO Box 2117 47402-2117
336-4310
www.salvationarmyindiana.org

Volunteer Contact: Leah Sinn Minimum Age: 16
Email: leah_sinn@usc.salvationarmy.org w/Parental Supervision: 10

Provides clothing, furniture, household items and more, free to those in need. Also sells donated items at a low cost to the general public to support its social services.

* Volunteers are needed to sort and hang clothing in preparation for the daily free distribution to the needy. Quality inspection of clothing for free give away and general sales to the public. Store is open Monday through Saturday 10 am - 6 pm.

STONE BELT

2815 E. 10th St. 47408
332-2168, ext. 279
www.stonebelt.org

Volunteer Contact: Larry Pejeau Minimum Age: 13
Email: lpejeau@stonebelt.org

Prepares, empowers and supports persons with developmental disabilities and their families to participate in the life of the community.

* Volunteer jobs include working with individuals in their residential program or vocational rehabilitation program, organizing special events, assisting with fundraising events and activities, assisting with agency public relations, or volunteering at the Infant and Child Developmental Services in various capacities.